Cancellation: Rockfall Alert – Level One

Number: A42/2019

Date: 7 May 2019

The Rockfall Alert - Level One Alarm activated at 01:45 pm on Monday 7th May 2019 has been cancelled.

Improvement in weather conditions and the reduction of rainfall over the course of late yesterday and overnight has significantly reduced the need to continue the Level One alert.

Access restrictions to Flying Fish Cove have been removed along with road signage and speed limitations on Murray Road.

The Emergency Management Committee appreciates the ongoing cooperation of the community.
