Public Health (Jervis Bay Territory) Emergency Direction (No. 4) 2020

Public Health Act 1997 (ACT) (Jervis Bay Territory)

I, RACHEL BACON, Deputy Secretary, Regional and Territories Group, Department of Infrastructure, Transport, Regional Development and Communications, exercising powers vested in me under the direction, dated 16 April 2020, made by the Governor-General under subsection 4B(2) of the Jervis Bay Territory Acceptance Act 1915 (Cwlth):

CONSIDERING it necessary or desirable to alleviate the emergency declared under the Public Health (Jervis Bay Territory) Emergency Declaration 2020,

MAKE, under section 120 of the Public Health Act 1997 (ACT), as in force in the Jervis Bay Territory under section 4A of the Jervis Bay Territory Acceptance Act 1915 (Cwlth), the DIRECTION set out in this instrument.

Dated 2nd June 2020 at 5:20 am/pm

Rachel Bacon
Deputy Secretary
Regional and Territories Group
Department of Infrastructure, Transport, Regional Development and Communications
1. Name of instrument

This instrument is the Public Health (Jervis Bay Territory) Emergency Direction (No. 4) 2020.

2. Commencement

This instrument takes effect immediately after it is made.

3. Duration

This instrument is in force for the period ending on the day the declared emergency (as extended or further extended) ends, unless it is earlier revoked.

4. Revocation

(1) This instrument revokes the Public Health (Jervis Bay Territory) Emergency Direction (No. 3) 2020.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, any act, matter or thing that, immediately before the revocation of the Public Health (Jervis Bay Territory) Emergency Direction (No. 3) 2020, had effect under that instrument continues to have effect under this instrument.

5. Definitions

In this instrument (including the Schedules to this instrument):

ACT liquor legislation means the Liquor Act 2010 (ACT), and any regulations made under or for the purposes of this Act, as in force in the Territory under section 4A of the Jervis Bay Territory Acceptance Act 1915 (Cwlth).

work includes work done as a volunteer or for a charitable organisation.

6. Directions concerning restricted use of certain premises

(1) The occupier or operator of premises referred in column 1 of Schedule 1 must ensure that:
   (a) the number of persons on the premises at any time does not exceed the limitation set out opposite the premises in column 2 of the Schedule, and
   (b) no person is on the premises as part of an individual group of more than 10 persons, and
   (c) any other restrictions or conditions set out opposite the premises in column 3 of the Schedule are complied with.

(2) Subsection (1)(b) does not apply to persons:
   (a) engaging in work on the premises,
   (b) participating in a gathering for a wedding, funeral, memorial or religious service, or a gathering immediately after a wedding, funeral or memorial service, at which no more than the number of persons permitted at the service or gathering under section 12 are on the premises.

(3) If it is a condition that there must be a COVID-19 safety plan for the premises, the occupier or operator of the premises must:
(a) develop and comply with a COVID-19 safety plan, and
(b) keep a copy of the COVID-19 safety plan on the premises and make it available for inspection by an emergency services officer as requested.

7. Direction about use of premises for certain purposes
Nothing in this instrument prevents the use of premises:
(a) to provide a service to assist vulnerable members of the public, including, for example, a food bank or a service providing for the needs of homeless persons, or
(b) for counselling and support group services, or
(c) as an early education and care facility.

8. Direction about persons allowed on residential premises
(1) Each person who is at any time an adult member of a household:
   (a) must not allow more than 5 visitors to be at the place of residence of the household at any one time, or
   (b) must take reasonable steps to ensure that no more than 5 visitors are at the place of residence of the household at any one time.

(2) A person is not a visitor for a place of residence if:
   (a) the person is a member of the household of the place of residence, or
   (b) the person is at the place of residence for any of the following purposes:
      (i) for the purpose of engaging in work,
      (ii) for childcare,
      (iii) to fulfil carers’ responsibilities,
      (iv) to provide care or assistance, including personal care, to a vulnerable person,
      (v) to participate in a gathering for a wedding or funeral or memorial service or a gathering immediately after the service at which no more than the number of persons permitted at the service or gathering under section 12 are on the premises,
      (vi) to give effect to new or existing arrangements for spending time with, and providing contact between, parents and children under the age of 18 or between siblings,
      (vii) to assist a person moving to or from the place of residence,
      (viii) to avoid an injury or illness or to escape a risk of harm,
      (ix) because of an emergency or for compassionate reasons.

9. Directions about number of persons allowed on other premises
(1) Subject to subsection (2), a person who is the occupier or operator of premises must not:
   (a) for premises comprised predominantly of an outdoor space: allow more than 500 persons to be on the premises at the same time, or
   (b) for premises comprised predominantly of an indoor space: allow more than 100 persons to be on the premises at the same time, or
   (c) allow persons to enter or stay on the premises (whether comprised of an outdoor or indoor space) if the size of the premises is insufficient to ensure there is 4 square metres of space for each person on the premises.

Note. This section does not prevent the conduct of events (such as sporting or racing events) subject to the limits referred to in this subsection and the prohibition in section 11 on gatherings of more than 10 persons.
(2) This section does not apply to:
(a) a place of residence, or
(b) premises referred to in Schedule 1, unless otherwise specified in that Schedule, or
(c) a gathering referred to in Schedule 2.

10. Direction about place of work

An employer must allow an employee to work at the person’s place of residence if it is reasonably practicable to do so.

11. Directions about public gatherings

(1) A person must not participate in a public gathering of more than 10 persons.

(2) A person is not part of a public gathering if the person is:
(a) engaged in work, or
(b) providing care or assistance to vulnerable persons.

(3) This clause does not apply to the following:
(a) a gathering referred to in Schedule 2 or premises referred to in Schedule 1,
(b) a gathering of persons all of whom are members of the same household, participating in a gathering for a wedding, funeral, memorial or religious service, or a gathering immediately after a wedding, funeral or memorial service, at which no more than the number of persons permitted at the service or gathering under section 12 are on the premises,
(c) a gathering to facilitate a move to a new place of residence or a business moving to new premises,
(d) a gathering to provide emergency assistance,
(e) a gathering necessary for the person to fulfil a legal obligation, including attending a court or tribunal, satisfying bail requirements or participating in legal proceedings,
(f) a gathering of persons on real property to enable persons to view or inspect the real property for the purposes of the sale or lease of the real property,
(g) a gathering of persons at a display home or other display premises to enable persons to view or inspect the display home or display premises for the purposes of the sale or lease of real property.

(4) In this section public gathering means a meeting or assembly of persons for a common purpose, including an organised or planned event in a public place (whether ticketed or not).

12. Directions about gatherings for weddings, funerals, memorial services and religious services

(1) A person must not participate in:
(a) a gathering for a wedding service, or a gathering immediately after a wedding service, at which there are more than 20 persons, excluding:
(i) the persons being married, and
(ii) the persons necessary for the conduct of, or assisting in the conduct of, the service or gathering, and
(iii) one photographer and one videographer,
(b) a gathering for a funeral service or memorial service, or a gathering immediately after a funeral or memorial service, at which there are more than 50 persons, excluding the persons necessary for the conduct of, or assisting in the conduct of, the service or gathering, including, for example:
(i) the funeral celebrant or minister of religion, and
(ii) the funeral directors,
(c) a gathering for a religious service at which there are more than 50 persons, excluding the persons necessary for the conduct of, or assisting in the conduct of, the service.

(2) I direct that:
   (a) a person at a wedding, funeral, memorial or religious service, or a gathering immediately after a wedding, funeral or memorial service, must provide the person’s name and contact details, including a telephone number or email address, to the relevant person for the service, and
   (b) the relevant person for the service or gathering must record the names and contact details, including telephone numbers and email addresses, of all persons at the service.

(3) In this section:
   relevant person, for a wedding, funeral, memorial or religious service, or a gathering immediately after a wedding, funeral or memorial service, means:
   (a) for a service or gathering held in an indoor space: the occupier or operator of the premises, or
   (b) for a service or gathering held in an outdoor space: the person conducting the service.

13. Direction—spitting or coughing on public official or other worker

(1) A person must not intentionally spit at or cough on any of the following persons in a way that would reasonably be likely to cause fear about the spread of COVID-19:
   (a) a public official,
   (b) another worker while the worker is:
      (i) at the worker’s place of work, or
      (ii) travelling to or from that place of work.

(2) If the worker’s place of work is the worker’s residential premises, the place of work does not, for the purposes of this section, include any part of the premises used solely for residential purposes.

(3) Without limiting paragraph (1)(b), a worker includes the following:
   (a) a retail worker,
   (b) a person who works at an airport,
   (c) a person who works for an electricity, gas, water or other utility company,
   (d) a person who works in the transport industry or a transport-related industry,
   (e) a member of the Australian Defence Force.

Note. Examples of public officials and workers include hospital staff, bus drivers, train drivers, ferry deckhands, taxi drivers, ride share drivers, food delivery workers, security guards, electricity, gas and water meter readers and postal delivery staff (including persons working for an entity under a contract, directly or indirectly, on behalf of a government).

14. Exemptions

(1) An emergency services officer may, in writing and subject to the conditions that the officer considers appropriate, grant an exemption to this direction or specified provisions of this direction.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to section 13.

15. Enforcement

(1) If a person fails to comply with this direction, an authorised person may then direct the person to do such things as are reasonably necessary to comply with this direction including, upon request, to produce proof of identification to the authorised person.
(2) If a person fails to comply with any direction given under subsection (1), then the authorised person may take all reasonable steps to enforce compliance with this direction.
Schedule 1 – Restricted premises

Note. Premises referred to in this Schedule are subject to certain limitations, restrictions or conditions. Any premises not referred to in this Schedule are open and only subject to the restrictions in section 9 about the number of persons allowed on premises, unless the premises are a place of residence or the persons on the premises are there for the purposes of an essential gathering referred to in Schedule 2.
